

- ☛ EXERCISE 8. In the following dialogs,
a. Mark the primary stress.
b. Read each passage aloud.

Situation 1. A group discussing architecture.

A: Who knows who designed the Falling Water House in Pennsylvania?

B: Frank Lloyd Wright.

A: Frank Lloyd Wright. That's right.

Situation 2. "B" is helping "A" with a paper.

A: What was Kohlberg's first stage of moral reasoning? I can't remember.

B: The preconventional stage.

A: The preconventional stage. Thank you. And what was the second stage?

Situation 3. "A" is giving a seminar on ethics.

A: Can someone give an example of an ethical dilemma?

B: Cloning sheep.

A: Cloning sheep. Good. Let's give that situation some consideration.

- c. Now write two dialogs like those above using subject matter from your own field. Mark the primary stress.

Situation 4. _____

A.

B.

A.

Situation 5. _____

A.

B.

A.