[Acquaintances talking]

- A. What are you doing this summer?
B. Something a little bit different: My sister and I are taking a *travel seminar on Greek and Roman history. We'll spend three weeks each visiting Greece and Italy, and we may even see Crete.
A. That sounds interesting. Who's the teacher?
B. There are two: Linda Peters and Steve Richards. They've already got our tickets.
A. So when do you leave?
B. June sixteenth, and we return six weeks later.
A. Well, have a great trip.
B. Thanks. I expect we will.
