[Two friends talking]

- A. Do you have a calculator I could borrow?
B. I do, but I've got to get some batteries for it.
A. Don't you have an adaptor?
B. Not any more. I have a bad habit of losing things like that.
A. If I bought you some batteries, could I use your calculator until Saturday?
B. Sure. I'd be glad for you to use it.
A. Thanks.
