

- ☛ EXERCISES 2-5. a. Fill the blanks with names/initials/words in your field.
b. Mark the heavy stresses of all items.

Names

○
Stress the last name. For example, "Albert Einstein."

Who is the head of your department? _____

Who is your advisor? _____

Publications

○
Stress the last word. For example, "the Daily Planet."

The L. A. Times                      Psychology Today                      the Wall Street Journal

Important journal in your field: _____

Important journal in your field: _____

Initials

○
Stress the last letter. For example, "E S L."

CBS                      SAT                      IBM                      ITA                      UCLA

1. _____                      2. _____                      3. _____

Noun 2 is made out of Noun 1

When the first noun tells the material out of which the second noun is made, the second noun usually receives more stress.

○
For example, "a stone wall"

steel container                      lead pencil                      acid rain

Others: _____
_____