Linking

a. Consonant-to-Vowel
b. Vowel-to-Vowel
c. Consonant-to-Same Consonant
d. Consonant-Stop-to-Consonant-Stop
e. Consonant-to-Similar-Consonant

1. Loúís Tried to mouth the words: How many ounces in a pound?
2. My only clue about his deep bias is that tidbit of gossip.
3. Big gas-guzzling cars are really an obstacle to *fuel savings.
4. Two empty whisky bottles lay in the shadow of the alley.
5. I wish she’d refer back to the article for a concurring opinion.
6. A year’s almost six hours longer than 365 days.
7. The tree withstood the storm but was uprooted by a tornado.
8. Should the *bank président be absolved of all liability?
9. Yes, Sue was shaken to learn who the martyred patriot was.
10. They vied for admission to our finest accredited college.
11. In the final decision neither of the Olympians won third place.
12. But two of the jurors could not be truly neutral.
13. His audience sincerely appreciated the brilliant performance.
14. One of the eight graduates studied for a doctorate.
15. The autonomic *nervous system is a topic taught in neurology.
16. The Olympic Games now include dozëns of gymnastics competitions.
17. Sacred tribal rituals occurred on the ancestral *hunting grounds.

*compound noun: Heavier stress on the first word.